BRINGING YOUR IDEAS TO LIFE!

Do you have a custom food mix that you want to add to your product line? Our industrial batch food blending and food packaging plant can take you from idea, to prototype, to full scale retail market release in a flash. Our formulation lab can put together just the food blend you're looking for. Our custom mix plant can blend your creation (from small pilot batches to large scale production runs) to uniform blend. We can package your idea in any number of package types from film to cartons and beyond. We can warehouse and drop-ship or palletize and deliver to you preferred distribution center. With Honeyville the sky is the limit.

"It has been an absolute pleasure to work with the entire Honeyville team. From our first interaction and steps through their door, the Honeyville team was so warm, welcoming, and knowledgeable."
